Book of Revelation

21:9-22:19

21:10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, II having the glory of God. Her brilliance was like a very costly stone, as a stone of crystal-clear jasper.

“I shall show you the bride,
the wife of the Lamb” (9)

“and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, “ (10)

- “The holy city, Jerusalem” is the bride of Christ, the church (10; 21:2; Ez 40:2).
- This NT definition directs how we should interpret OT prophetic images of the future.

2 In the visions of God He brought me into the land of Israel, and set me on a very high mountain; and on it to the south there was a structure like a city. (Ez 40:2)

Revelation

And on either side of the river was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. <sup>3</sup> And there shall no longer be any curse; and the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His bond-servants shall serve Him; <sup>4</sup> and they shall see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup> And there shall no longer be any night; and they shall not have need of the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God shall illumine them; and they shall reign forever and ever.

Blessed is he who heeds the words of the prophecy of this book.” 8 And I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things. 9 And he said to me, “Do not do that; I am a fellow servant of yours and of your brethren the prophets and of those who heed the words of this book; worship God.” 10 And he said to me, “Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.

11 “Let the one who does wrong, still do wrong; and let the one who is filthy, still be filthy; and let the one who is righteous, still practice righteousness; and let the one who is holy, still keep himself holy.” 12 “Behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to render to every man according to what he has done. 13 “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.” 14 Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter by the gates into the city. 15 Outside are the dogs and the sorcerers and the immoral persons and the murderers and the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices lying.

Jerusalem

The New Jerusalem

Summary

- All the disappointments from Genesis 3 onwards are richly surpassed in a new river, fruit, tree of life, couple, service, intimacy, glory, etc.
- The Old Testament prophecies find their true fulfillment in the beautified eternal and new age rather than in a temporary millennium.
- God's people need to stay poised, looking intently for her Bridegroom to come for her, calling out, "Come!"
- The last Gospel offer goes out by giving a glimpse of the contrast, again, trying to gather to Himself any before they are forever locked away from His glory in darkness.

Book of Revelation

21:9-22:19

Scene 8:
Jerusalem
the Bride

“In 1737, when Whitefield was only twenty-two years old, he was preaching to crowded churches in London and thousands were turned away because there was no room; he had not yet begun preaching in the open air. At this time he said of the congregations, “They were all attention, and heard like people hearing for eternity” (Revival by Edwards, p. 43).

Discussion Questions

- What extra significance does our relationship with God have by describing the church as Christ Jesus’ bride?
- How does light create fantastic scenes? What is the most fantastic light scene you have seen? In what way will God’s light be much more glorious than the sun?
- What does the phrase from the quote about Whitfield mean, “like people hearing for eternity” mean? Is that the way you listen to God’s Word or is His voice stifled by the world’s guck?
